

La Table du Chatelain

Les Marmitons Club

Theme : The North of France – Its food, its drink

The "Région Nord", which comprises the area of Nord-Pas de Calais is known for its "cuisine conviviale". This translates as food prepared for sharing among friends, without pretence or ridiculously high cost. Beer is popular in the region due to the area's rich history of breweries and as many places at which to drink their products.

Première Entrée

Beer Soup with ham and Gouda cheese

~

Deuxième Entrée

Monkfish Carbonade

~

Plat de résistance

Pork filet de l'Avesnois, sautéed Apples and Potato soufflé

~

Salade

Salad of endives and Roquefort

~

Dessert

Pear with beer sabayon

